WHY VARANASI?

1. UP and Varanasi's huge hospitality market driven by rocket growth in domestic and international tourism. Almost 100 million tourists annually to make UP the No. 1 tourist destination in India.
2. UP can boast of over 58,000 hotels and other accommodations as per CEIC data
3. UP is the largest producer of food grain in India.
4. Varanasi is the origin and heart of India's culinary arts, a gastronomic tradition still alive and kicking in Varanasi, Lucknow and other cultural destinations of UP
5. Varanasi – ties in the states that are at the heart and center of India – Uttar Pradesh, Bihar and Madhya Pradesh. Equi-distance between Lucknow, Patna, Godh Gaya, it ties in the major tourism destinations of mid-India such as Sarnath, Agra, Ayodhya, Khajurao.
6. Unprecedented state and central government investment in tourism infrastructure in UP such as Luxury steamships, Ram Mandir and mushrooming new private sector hotels.
7. UP is the second largest state economy after Maharashtra in India.

The Food & Beverage and Hospitality Exhibition (FBH) Varanasi 2026 is focused exclusively on food, beverage & hospitality, the one and only of its kind in Varanasi and Uttar Pradesh in recognition of the tremendous growth in the sector. Varanasi and UP has taken all other destinations in India on the combined number of domestic and foreign tourists.

The Food & Beverage and Hospitality Exhibition (FBH) Varanasi 2026 will hosts about 250 exhibitors, features 7 interactive live events. And of course, numerous sample tasting counters during the Exhibition to involve and engage the industry buyers and visitors.

The Food & Beverage and Hospitality Exhibition (FBH) Varanasi expects to attract more than 18,000 visitors The event is primarily a business-to-business event, Visitors will be able to check the exhibitors' list and directly pre-book appointments with the exhibitors for the duration of the exhibition.

The Food & Beverage and Hospitality Exhibition (FBH) Varanasi clearly defines and demonstrates the power of live marketing. A TV, FM commercial or Social Media cannot do what an exhibition can do. What an exhibition can do, a print or bill-board ad cannot do. The Exhibition is a rare event that gives you far more possibilities that even a door-to door sales cannot offer.
